THE IO
FOUNDATION

---

The IO Foundation is a non-profit organization dedicated to promote, protect and provide solutions for Digital Rights.

Spearheaded by The IO Foundation, TechUp is a convergence program between social tech capacity building and tech solution development for Civil Society. It aims at bridging the local tech scene with local NGOs with the objective of nurturing a Social Tech society that is conducive to the observance of Digital Rights.

TechUp combines capacity building workshops with hands on activities such as Sprints and Hackathons with a strong focus on Digital Rights observance, fostering a collaborative environment between local tech groups and Civil Society organizations.
